To Whom It May Concern

Griffith Regional Theatre booked Acrobatic Allstars for one show on 25 February 2011. It was literally a sell out, there was not a single seat available! I wish that we had booked for two shows, there was enough interest in the community.

The audience loved the performance. What these young women and men can do with their feats of balance and contortion is absolutely extraordinary! Interspersed with Hao's amusing anecdotes and banter, plus an interlude of his beautiful singing, the audience was rapt from beginning to end.

I can highly recommend this show and, based on our experience, venues can be sure of big audiences.
